FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: OhioGuidestone to Host “Hidden in Plain Sight”

Looks can be deceiving.

That’s the message behind a unique traveling exhibit created by the Bath and Copley Township Police Departments. The display is called “Hidden in Plain Sight.” The departments constructed what appears to be the bedroom of the average teenager. But items that are taken for granted as nothing but the usual accessories can actually be signals that the teenager could be involved in risky and even illegal activity.

“Hidden in Plain Sight” will be on display at OhioGuidestone’s MidTown Office at 3500 Carnegie Avenue on Wednesday, October 9, 2013 beginning at 6:00 p.m. The exhibit is open to adults only. There is no charge for admittance.

The audience is encouraged to explore and interact with items in the display which may be indicative that a teenager is involved in substance abuse, underage drinking, eating disorders, sexual activity and more. Participants will be enlightened, educated and astonished.

For further information, contact Jill Tayfel, Director of Juvenile Justice Programs, OhioGuidestone, at 440.260.8417 or Jill.Tayfel@OhioGuidestone.org.
